CIVIL CASE

CASE No: 14- 12086 4 , 1

V.

AMENDMENT OF RETALIATION:

KATHLEEN DENNEHEY

SUPERINTENDENT SPENCER DEFENDANTS

In this the Plaintiff in this case has again been retaliated against by the Defendants on November 22,2004 the D.Officer informed him that the pending Adjustment that ||as pending against him for Six Weeks has been dismissed but, they no || have given the Plaintiff in this case another D-Report for filing a Grievance again. They have Retaliated against the Plaintiff in this case for a Lawful Activity of filing a Grievance for missing money out of his account.

The Plaintiff in this case filed this Grievance in good faith but, was soon found to have been given a D-Report for filing of the grievance again.

The Defendants in this case have continued to Retaliate against the Plaintiff in this case Pratt v Rowland 770 F. Supp 1399, Thomas v. Evan 880 F.2d 1235

The Plaintiff is being unduly punished by the defendants in this case for exercising of his constitution -al Rights.

SIGNED ON THIS  $\lambda 3$  DAY OF NOVEMBER 2004

Dear Mr. Johnson:

Your letter to Commissioner Dennehy, dated October 13, 2004, regarding your employment as a runner in the Special Management Unit has been referred to my office for response.

Please be advised you are in the Special Management Unit on Administrative Segregation Pending Transfer Status due to the need for alternative placement based on allegations of potential safety issues. Therefore, you are not eligible for a runner's position while awaiting transfer in the Special Management Unit.

I trust this addresses your concerns.

Sincerely,

Superintendent
